The Graduate Student Assembly
The University of Texas at Austin

Introduced By: The Student Affairs Committee

Resolution: G.R. 15 (S) 1- Endorsement of the Graduate Student Bill of Rights and Responsibilities

Summary: A resolution passing the Graduate Student Bill of Rights and Responsibilities.

Whereas (1): The Graduate Student Association (GSA), a Legislative Student Organization recognized by the Office of the Dean of Students, is the elected governing body and the voice of the 13,000 graduate and professional students at the University of Texas at Austin; and,

Whereas (2): The paid and unpaid services of graduate students benefit the community of the University of Texas. Providing contributions as teachers, mentors, tutors, research assistants, researchers, scholars, innovators, administrators, conference organizers, journal editors, and other roles, graduate students are critical university resources. They also receive competitive grants and fellowships that bring prestige to the university, its students, its faculty, and its administrators; and,

24 Whereas (3): Establishing these rights and responsibilities for graduate students will 25 allow the University of Texas to continue to recruit and cultivate the best and brightest 26 graduate students from across the country and around the world; and,

27

28 Whereas (4): The rights and responsibilities of graduate students outlined in this Bill will 29 continue to ensure a productive, mutually beneficial, and professional community at the 30 University of Texas at Austin; and,
